Thank you for your faithful and generous giving to Mother of Divine Providence!

Father John Stokely will be leaving MDP this weekend to return to Rome to complete his academic work. We have been blessed to have Father with us over the past two difficult months. His kind, gentle spirit has helped to soften our grieving hearts and we are so grateful for his priestly service to us. Please pray for him as we ask him to pray for us. Thank you Father and God bless you!

Thank You

The family of Fr. Martin T. Cioppi would like to thank you for your prayers and kind expressions of sympathy shown following his passing. Your support at this difficult time was very much appreciated and a great comfort to all.

Dear Parishioners,

It has been an honor and a privilege to serve the parish community as your DRE over the past three years. After much prayer, I have decided to accept a full-time position at another parish and will not be staying on as MDP's Director of Religious Education. This change will not be effective immediately as so much is still up in the air here at MDP and I want to help maintain as much stability as possible during this trying time for our parish. I will stay on to make sure the school year and Confirmation carry on with as much normalcy as possible.

This is a very sad parting for me – working at MDP has been a beautiful and rewarding experience. This is a special parish!

I would like to thank Father Cioppi whose legacy will remain, especially through the religious education programs, in a very special way. He was an extraordinary mentor to me over the years and I am forever grateful to him. I know he is interceding for MDP in a very special way and the parish will continue to grow and thrive.

To all of the students and families – I am praying for you! Jesus loves you so much in all of the highs and lows and will always provide for His beloved children (even if in ways we do not expect). Getting to know and work with all of you has been the best part of working at MDP and I will miss you!

Please keep me in your prayers as I will certainly keep you in mine. I know that we will cross paths again, if only at the wonderful Carnival over the years!

Many Blessings,
Alexandra LaMastra, DRE
